CLAIM OR CLAIMS

What I claim as my invention is

A decorative lamp design comprising (1) a clear glass ball embedded lamp surface in which the outline of the graphic or shape is comprise of many small holes that filled with fiber optics, (2) fiber optics which transmit light from the light source, (3) the light source which are emitted diodes (LEDs) and are connected to a control unit, (4) a control unit that using integrated circuit to control lighting patterns and sounds, and (5) the battery housing for battery to power the lamp.